17 July 2013 Main Meeting at Petrini's

DJ / SBAUG Group info /

Meeting Summary…

July's topics: We discussed differences between Apple's iCloud service and Dropbox's Cloud storage and file-sharing service. Two Cloud backup applications had enthusiasts: Arq – online backup built especially for the Mac; and Crashplan – offsite, onsite, & Cloud backup service, with easy-to-restore features. Plus, Ian gave a demonstration of Burn Note, a web secure, timed-message service, great for sharing passwords, etc. (A big thank you to the ten who shared their knowledge on these topics. It made for a great evening [using Petrini's wireless mic set-up this time].)

19 June 2013 Main Meeting at Petrini's

DJ / SBAUG Group info /

Meeting Summary…

June's topic: Tips for Password-Management Applications.
1Password (presentation), Dashlane, & PasswordWallet (discussion). Plus, two videos on the big screen: an Apple review about using their technology to help people with medical needs; and a Jonathan Ives Apple video about iOS7.

Our general meetings are moving to the 3rd Wednesday of the month, in the meeting room @ Petrini's Italian Restaurant, 5711 Calle Real, Goleta.

Time: 6:00–8:00 p.m.

As always, we'll have wireless internet access and good company!

We meet in a "back room" at the Petrini's Restaurant in Goleta. This location was planned as a convenient space where members can come to talk, ask questions, and debate about their Macs, iOS devices, and software in an informal setting. The multi-media room has an 11-foot HD screen with wireless internet.  Monthly drawings have a new format: At every meeting — someone will pick a random ticket for a $100 gift card to the Apple store. Each member who attends gets 2 free tickets, and if you renew your membership or become a member at the meeting you get a 3rd ticket! Members can also buy additional tickets for $3 each. We hope that many of you will come and check it out. We know that there are many among us who enjoy the serendipity of coming to a meeting and learning something useful that we didn't even realized that we wanted to know about.

15 May 2013 Main Meeting at Petrini's

Ian Lessing / SBAUG Group info /

Meeting Summary...

May's round–table discussion: RoaringApps, an application–compatibility wiki for Mac OS X Mountain Lion & iOS 5, databasing thousands of apps and whether they're compatible with Mountain Lion. Deleting applications: One product, AppZapper, finds the extra files and lets you delete them with one click. Adobe's announcement that future versions of the company's Creative Suite products, including Photoshop, will be available only on a (Cloud) subscription basis. Mention of Pixelmator — a graphic editor developed for Mac OS X — that can create, edit and enhance photos — with layers (as a replacement to Photoshop for some users).

Robert Wilmott: 1948-2013

Ian Lessing / SBAUG Group info /

Robert Wilmott

The Santa Barbara Independent published an 'In Memorium' article about Robert Wilmott online on 20-January-2013.  It begins with 'Robert Wilmott passed away suddenly on January 10, 2013, in Arkansas, where he had flown to make final arrangements for his sister Diana Brown, who had died unexpectedly one week before."

To read the full article click HERE

Robert was a longtime  and dedicated member of our Users Group and served on the Board for many years.  Below are some thoughts shared by members:

Date: Sun, 13 Jan 2013 14:24:08 -0800 "We are very sorry to report that Robert Wilmott passed away last Thursday, quite suddenly. He was on a trip back east to sort out his sister's estate; she's passed away early last week. The cause is reputed to have been a pulmonary embolism or aneurysm — we don't know the details. Robert Wilmott was an integral part of the SBMUG / SBAUG, having volunteered to join the board and help preserve the club in recent years. He was generous, funny, and exceptionally friendly to all he met. He shared laughter, wonder, and joy freely with his wide circle of friends. He'll be sorely missed."

Date: Fri, 18 Jan 2013 09:43:17 -080  "[Robert] …was loved in many circles in Santa Barbara and was an Usher at the County Bowl for several decades, meeting new friends all the time!!"

Attendees at the February 21, 2013 SBAUG general meeting took a few moments to remember our dear departed board member Robert Wilmott.
